Global Warming
Dianne Feinstein. Vital Speeches of the Day. New York: Jan 2007. Vol. 73, Iss. 1; pg. 16, 4 pgs

Abstract (Summary)
A speech by Dianne Feinstein, US Senator, D-CA, is presented. Global warming is the single greatest environmental threat people use to power their homes, their cars, their businesses, is causing the Earth to warm much faster than anyone expects. Further temperature increases are kept to 1 to 2 degrees Fahrenheit by the end of this century, the damages, though significant, they do not act and warming increases by 5 to 9 degrees by the end of the century, the damage will be catastrophic and No. 1 global warming gas, is produced by power plants, cars, manufacturing and it is used to power residential and commercial news is there is substantial venture capital funding to invest in clean energy projects.
